Dear MR. ANIKET JAIN

We at Vodafone believe that every relationship can be reinstated at any stage in the interest of both the parties. As you are aware, your Vodafone account is under arrears. After persistent follow-up, we have still not received the payment. Any person would, given a choice, try to clear his outstanding. We would like to give you an opportunity to do so.

We wish to inform you that even after repeated intimations; there is an overdue amount of Rs. 813.65 against your Vodafone Relationship number 105598791 , Cell number 7506060846.

You can make the payment online using the following link:

https://www.billdesk.com/pgidsk/pgmerc/vodafone/VODAFONEDN_details.jsp

We are willing to settle the issues (if any) with you if you have the intention to pay. To this end, you may contact Prajakta Jadhav on 022-48788123.

Kindly note that this email is issued to you in good faith of reaching an amicable solution and in no way prejudices the interest of Vodafone India Ltd. We hope that you will take advantage of this one time gesture that we at Vodafone have taken to resolve matters, if acceptable to both of us.

Please ignore this mail if you have already cleared the above payment and request you to please share the payment details.

Thanks

Shailesh Bhardwaj

Hello Shailesh,

6/20/2018

Gmail - Regarding Outstanding Towards Your Number

I had sent an email to disconnect my connection in December to which I even received an acknowledgement. Even after that, I have been receiving bills. You can check your records, this connection has not been used since that mail was sent to Vodafone. In that e-mail, it was confirmed that there is no outstanding against my account (mail from Vodafone dated 24 Dec 2017).

Can you please check this at your end once and let me know this is closed rather than applying late payment charges month after month.

Thank you.

Thank You.

Regards,
Aniket Jain
